

Interest for White Student Union grows

5 SEPTEMBER 2012 BY JONATHAN MUNSHAW, NEWS EDITOR & JEREMY BAUER-WOLF, EDITOR-IN-CHIEF 323 COMMENTS

Former president of YWC meets with SGA adviser

A White Student Union could form on Towson's campus, former Youth for Western Civilization President Matthew Heimbach said.

Heimbach said that the purpose of the White Student Union is to create a support network for white students on campus and to celebrate various elements of white history, figureheads and culture.

"We essentially want to replicate what every student union does on campus," he said. "You have a Black student Union who promotes black heroes, we want to do the same thing."

The union is meant to be more open than Heimbach's former group, YWC.

YWC's goals included active political discourse and campaigning. A White Student Union would be friendlier, he said.

"We'd also want to create a safe space for members who have filed hate/bias reports and who have had anti-white language used against them," he said. "Especially the female members who have heard 'cracker' and 'honkie,' and nothing has ever come of it. It's a support network for a campus that is hostile toward white students."

Sophomore music education major Liam Hurlbut said he believes it is unfair for white students to have their own union.

"White power movements are illegitimate," he said. "In the history of this country, whites never lost their power. They have always run this country and oppressed all other races. Even today whites have unearned 'privileges' in our society. Whites must recognize and reject this privileges to atone for the evils of our ancestors."

The group hasn't filed any paperwork to become a student group, according to Student Government Association President Brandy Hall, although the group's leader met with SGA Adviser Chris Rindosh.

Hiembach said that 17 students have submitted their information and are interested in joining.

He also has set up meetings with potential advisers. Heimbach may not take leadership of the organization.

"I'm not clamoring to be at the forefront. Last year was tiring, always being the public face for an organization under siege," he said. "It wears on you. If we had an election, and that's what the people wanted, I'd help the organization grow to the best of my ability."

Hall said that the SGA may no longer approve student groups the first year they are active, however, if a resolution started by Associate Vice President of Campus Life Teri Hall is passed by the SGA, it would require new student groups to go through the Office of Student Activities for the first year they are active.

"The resolution would still have the SGA senators vote, but only after a student group has been active for a year and they are ready to become budgeted," Hall said. "Teri has been working on it for four years, and it is ready to be voted on, and I will fully support senators voting for it. It makes student groups come to the SGA after a year and show that they were a positive force on campus before they can get a budget."

Because there has been no formal application, Hall said the SGA is not currently concerned with the proposed union.

"We aren't concerned with them right now," she said. "We are interested to see how it will pan out. If they do become a student group, SGA will get feedback from students about how they feel the group is on campus, and we will act from there. I am always open to acting on what the students want."

Hiembach said that it's difficult for others to demonstrate public support for the union because he feels that the campus judges potential members.

"After the headache of last year, I'm afraid SGA might vote us down on principle," he said. "But if we have the students, the adviser and the constitution, there's no reason to allow us not to be SGA affiliated."

Hiembach and his supports have also advertised rigorously, posting over 150 flyers around campus.

He said that they disappeared almost as soon as they are put up.

"Some people are apprehensive standing out outside the union," he said. "Everyone remembers with YWC. I was the public face, I have nothing to hide from anymore, but I think a lot of people are not more forthcoming because they're frightened. It's ironic because others are intimidated and afraid when in reality we've acknowledged that we're outnumbered."

Heimbach posted a Facebook status Wednesday stating, "So Facebook banned me for a day and took down the Towson University White Student Union page for 'hate speech.' Funny enough, the Towson University Black Student Union page is still up."

Numerous fliers were posted on the door of the Center for Student Diversity asking students to support a White Student Union, according to Assistant Vice President for Student Diversity Victor Collins.

Collins said that he would not be opposed to a White Student Union on campus, as long as they follow the proper procedure to become a student group.

"I have no objection to students creating an organization if they follow the procedure," he said. "However, I don't think they should have their own space or office on campus because it would promote the idea that white students have the same experience on campus as African American students and LGBT students, and that's just not true."

Last semester, YWC, Heimbach's student group dedicated to promoting traditional beliefs, garnered significant media attention and was eventually was disbanded due to their adviser, professor of mass communication Richard Vatz, stepping down.

Why is there an automatic assumption that a White Student Union would be a "white power movement"? It's described as a support network and a celebration of culture – and there's nothing wrong with being a part of a community of people who share something in common with you (that's what pretty much ALL student groups are based on, after all).

Also, can we just get past the whole "privilege" and "atoning for our ancestors' evils" concept? It's frankly ridiculous. Everyone has their own individual battles, and just assuming someone is "privileged" or saying that they need to pay for others' mistakes based on the color of their skin is kind of, um, racist...

Anti-Whites won't be satisfied that we have sufficiently atoned for the sins of our ancestors until there are no majority-White countries left. Nevermind the fact that there are non-White races that have a history of conquering and oppressing others, but those races are never demanded to pay for the sins of their ancestors by (among other things) flooding their countries with immigrants from other races and making it illegal to resist their replacement by using private property and freedom of association rights. Nobody is flooding Africa with millions of non-Africans to get rid of Black privilege in Africa. Nobody is flooding Asia to get rid of Asian privilege there. This is being done in White countries and ONLY White countries. It is genocide.

People who say Towson University should not allow a White Student Union are simply discriminating against Whites and pushing an obvious double standard. Discrimination against non-Whites is "racism", but discrimination against Whites is justice. They'll say they are anti-racist, but what they really are is anti-White. Anti-racist is just a code word for anti-White.

What exactly do us whites need support for? White history is being celebrated in history classes everyday, and we are living in a white cultured world.

There is no function that this organization would serve that isn't already being served by everyday society. I vote nay.

If you were forming a group to support conservative ideas or a church group, that would be acceptable, but this is just pointless jargon because you feel that you are entitled to more than the everything you already have.

I am saddened and appalled that this soon after the ywc fiasco Towson has to deal with this hurtful foolishness again. There is no white genocide in America. There is however an abundance of white privilege in America. As a university that strives for diversity it seems to go against the values of the school itself as well as many students that have come here to find an environment where they can be safe, accepted, and learn without having to deal with the same bias that they would off campus. I am sure there are many in this country who would support a white student union- there are many individuals who do not embrace diversity like Towson does but I don't see why we should let these attitudes of fear and discrimination become institutionalized at our school.

I'm an LGBT alumni of Towson and to be honest, I find this pretty disheartening. I recall efforts to share our stories when we were on campus and partnerships with the BSU in an effort to help the wider campus gain a better understanding of why we had our groups on campus and what they meant to our members. Safe spaces must be created for those who are not the privileged or of the dominant race, religion, gender or sexual orientation, etc. because the majority of spaces in this country are not safe for us.

I followed the stories on the YWC last year and was also disappointed with that. I understand wanting to have my voice heard and have a safe place and I respect that other students want that as well. However, I do not think that those who fit neatly into the prescribed norms of society need the campus to approve and provide a safe place for them to find their voices. They already have plenty of them, including the campus at large.

I read Mr. Heimbach's letter to The Towerlight, and I must say I was intrigued. Mr. Heimbach said, and I am paraphrasing, that a white student union would celebrate European culture and Christian traditions. Fair enough. But what about those from European descent who are not Christian and do not have Christian traditions as part of their culture? It seems odd to discriminate against a possible member of your white student union because they do not fit your contrived identity of "white". Furthermore, I would like to see statistics and proof of these so-called "anti-white assaults" that are taking place in our community. Are they anti-white because they are a crime committed against a white person? A crime that would have happened to a person of any race, really, but it occurred against a white person nonetheless?

And Theresa, you miss the blaring point of the entire article. You fail to see the complex issue of the entire argument, really. No one is saying that we need to pay for the mistakes of our ancestors, white people are so privileged, etc. There's no racism in admitting that minority groups are in place because they are just that: a minority. Blacks, members of the LGBT community... they all have their own student groups for a reason. And frankly, this entire argument, which continues to spew racism and feelings of hatred in the TU community, is a prime example of why the groups exist in the first place.

Justice,

Your post is appallingly dishonest. You say that white history is already celebrated in history classes. This is a bald-faced lie. White history is demonized. White students are shamed for the misdeeds of their ancestors yet ridiculed or even vilified if they express any pride in their ancestors' accomplishments. White literature isn't even studied anymore except to point out how racist, sexist and whateverphobic it is.

You say whites have everything. The truth is whites have nothing. There is not a single majority white country in the world where the percentage of the white population is not shrinking. No Western country is specifically devoted to the welfare of white people. The genocidal ideology of the "proposition nation" has spread to Europe. People laugh at the English people when they refer to themselves as the indigenous people of the British isles, which is, in fact, exactly what they are, because indigenes have special rights to the land. European multicultural elites will not recognize the status of European indigenous peoples because their agenda is to race replace the peoples of Europe with peoples from Africa, Asia, and the Middle East.

This is a blatant genocidal assault on European-descended people all over the world, and yet you continue to demonize whites for wanting to organize to save themselves from total oblivion. Surely you realize that unlimited non-white immigration into ALL white countries, together with a denial of any pride or social space for whites, can only have one goal, and that is the destruction of white ethnic groups all over the world, and eventually our total biological destruction.

Why do you advocate for policies that will lead to a future without white children? Do you believe the world will be a better place when there are no white people left?

Thank you for your efforts, Matt. You are a brave young man. The time has come. If we do nothing, there will be no future for our people.

Well I digress from my argument, I have a salient question for you anti-whites: why is it "racist" when white people organize to have their own student union, when other minority student unions get thousands of dollars in student funding? Also, how are whites privileged, when rampant affirmative action is ubiquitous in the public sector and even the private sector?

Many businesses that are contracted by the government; have to abide by affirmative action rules to bid for a contract. Furthermore, why do network tv stations and record labels promote anti-white celebrities like Snoop Dogg, Ice Cube, NWA, Andre 3000, Al Sharpton and Kanye West? You're post is appallingly ignorant. White history is celebrated very openly in history classes. Every single king and queen from Europe? White. Every President of the United States up until 2008? White. We have plenty of white heroes who are celebrated. But there are white villains in history too. And they are demonized. Not because they're white, but because they did something bad. And former heroes like Columbus, a white man who discovered America is now looked on in a different light because he basically committed genocide against ancient Mexican cultures. And White literature is studied all the time, what the hell are you talking about? Shakespeare, Thoreau, Dickens, etc. White people. Just because we're adding racial diversity to who is studied in the classroom doesn't mean we're "Demonizing white history."

I never once said "Whites have everything" you're imagining quotes. But to say that whites have NOTHING. Are you actually being serious? I don't really believe your claim that there is no country where whites aren't the majority. And if the white populations were shrinking, its because other populations are growing. No country needs to be devoted to helping white people as a specific group because they aren't in need of any specific help. There are white people who need help, but not because they're white.

If you really believe that indigenous peoples have a claim to their native land, than how are you going to have the audacity to say that Whites should be the dominant culture in America? Native Americans? Heard of them?

Surely you realize that immigrants do not come to "White America" to destroy white culture? They come here because they want what America has to offer.

I don't advocate for policies that would lead to a future without white children. I don't know what I could have possibly said for you to imagine that argument. Or what kind of twisted drugs you are taking that would make you think that is even remotely a possibility or an agenda of anyone. No I don't think the world would be "better off without white people" but I believe the world would be a better place without ignorant people like yourself, and you just happen to be white.

Justice,

(1) You are ignoring the very obvious fact that white history is taught as a criminal rap sheet while the crimes of other civilizations are minimized. Islamic history is just as bloody, if not more so, than white history, yet we are not allowed to notice that. The Aztecs tore out people's hearts in their sick human sacrifice cult. Plains Indians scalped people. Yet these folks are idealized as noble savages while whiteness is viewed as uniquely evil.

(2) Yes, I am serious when I say that whites have nothing. Whites are literally being replaced in their own countries and to add insult to injury we are stuck with the bill. We repeatedly object to this but governments do nothing, because they do not have our best interests at heart. As a matter of fact, they don't just do nothing, they ruthlessly suppress any dissent from the ongoing program of white genocide. They are loyal to the Third World (their international proletariat). As minority numbers and powers grow, they assert their ethnic interests at the expense of whites. They demand affirmative action and ever more welfare handouts. Do you realize that Britain actually pays welfare for multiple wives and sets of children of Muslim immigrants. How is this not geNOcide?

(3) Yes, I have heard of the Native Americans. I can't change genocides that happened in the past. I can only protest the one that is happening now. At least when whites took over America, we gave them autonomous homelands where they could celebrate their heritage and reproduce their kind. When whites ask for a homeland, or "reservation", we are demonized as white supremacists or naziswhowanttokillsixmillionjews. So how about it, Justice, do you believe that Indian reservations are "racist" and should therefore be abolished, or is it just the idea of a white homeland that you object to?

(4) You say immigrants come here because of "what America has to offer." America has nothing to offer unskilled Hispanic immigrants but low-paying jobs that do not pay enough to support their 2.6 children, necessitating massive transfer of wealth from the white taxpayer to these unskilled immigrants.

You say immigrants do not come here to change the culture, but that is in fact what they do. We are told that our Christmas decorations are offensive and must be taken down. Our own literary classics must make way for a "multicultural curriculum". There are only so many hours in the day for study, Justice. Our ancestors are demonized. How can we lionize Charles the Hammer or El Cid when there are Muslims in the classroom? We must rewrite history with a new spin to avoid hurting the feelings of Muslims.

(5) You say you don't advocate for a future without white children. Tell me, Justice, do you think that whites who don't date outside their race on principle are "racist"? If so, then you are indeed advocating for a slow genocide of white people. After all, if mass immigration continues and whites do not practice endogamous marriage, soon there will be no more white people. Mixed children do not identify as white and indeed often reject their white heritage. Do you ever hear Obama talk about being white in a positive way?

(6) When non-whites organize to assert their interests and celebrate their heritage, do you accuse them of "fear" and "xenophobia" Justice? No, I'm sure you don't. You may use the excuse that we are the majority for now, but remember this demographic replacement is happening in ALL white countries. We face biological and cultural oblivion and yet you demonize us for trying to preserve our people. What is the matter with you, Justice? You think you are against racism, but in practice, this really just means you are against a future

It should not matter that white people have never been a minority in this country, or never faced genocide, or oppression (for being white). It can be white people banding together.

I consider myself and my family to be white. My sister's high school class was predominately black. Through that, some of the white people in the school began a White Student Union. It was shut down, which in my opinion was utter bullshit. They had a Black Student Union, despite the fact that the majority of the school would consider themselves black, and the surrounding area was population predominantly by black people.

If people want to make a group such as this, it shouldn't be a problem at all.

(1) All history is a criminal rap sheet. Whites have a lot of blood on their hands, and so does everybody else. We learn about the brutality of other cultures but just because the indigenous populations were brutal doesn't mean the white invaders weren't. White invaders forced them out of their lands and slaughtered countless native tribes. Tribes that varied from being peaceful and tribes that were violent. But nothing can justify that.

(2) You're just so incorrect here that I'm shouldn't bother trying to fix you. You do realize that the government who is ignoring you, the people who are in POWER, are WHITE? How can you say we have NOTHING? You have no concept of how ignorant you sound do you? It's not genocide because the whites aren't going anywhere. Do you know the definition of genocide?

(3) That's actually surprising that someone like yourself has learned anything at all or about Native Americans. But yes we gave them land, but it was their land to begin with, AND we continually reduced their amount of land. I object to calling America a white homeland because it was not our "birthright."

(4) Your comments here are just incorrect xenophobic jargon so I don't even need to point out how little sense you make. Because you are clearly so far removed from reality that talking to you is actually making me feel ill.

(5) Do I think that whites who date whites are racist? No. Why would I think that? People love who they love. If a white person loves a white person. That's more than fine. If a white person loves an asian person, black person, etc and vice versa. So be it. That's love. Something you clearly know nothing about since you are so full of hatred. White people aren't being bred out of existence, and if they were that would take well over 1000s years. When has Obama even discussed "being white" as being positive or negative? never. Has he discussed how great it is to "be black" NO! You are just a raving lunatic hahahahahaha.

(6) What is the matter with ME?! Are you joking? Look at yourself. You are a so called "Mother" who is so beyond any reason that you are blindly following fictional rhetoric that endorses your xenophobic beliefs that you are reacting violently and exaggerating non-facts. You are a disgusting human being and a truly ridiculous one. The idea that you have spawned any sort of offspring is truly foul. I hope your aryan baby grows up in a world where we have eradicated xenophobic hate groups and agenda like the one you support.

Negroes are completely useless and we whites should really stop coddling them – rather let's get rid of the primitive savages and build a better society.

I don't have to atone for any evils of my ancestors, because they are not me. That's the same mentality that justifies the death of Jews (because of the death of Jesus) or the persecution of Modern Germans (For what Hitler did).

The majority of suicides take place in "white" countries, communities and families. Since those very same countries range from being poor to being wealthy, there is apparently no correlation, so that means it must be an emotional problem. I think if "pride", and a safe place to hide from hatred, would be the perfect thing for ANY people; however, the privilege police feel that it hurts their feelings, so we can't have that.

Saying that I can't be proud to be white, or saying that whites have no legitimate claims to be oppressed is ridiculous. The fact that they are saying that, because I'm white, that I can't be oppressed, is ridiculous.

(1) You don't understand. I'm not saying whites are perfect, nor am I saying any conquest or genocide in history was justified. I am merely saying that you are wrong when you say college history courses are a celebration of white history. They are not. White misdeeds are emphasized over white accomplishments and white students are made to feel ashamed of their ancestors. A White Student Union would be an important advocacy organization to make sure that history is fair to whites and to celebrate our most extraordinary accomplishments.

(2) You say the people in power are white. That is mostly true, but it is also irrelevant when they routinely side with immigrants over their own people. Just the other day, the English Defense League was trying to hold a peaceful demonstration against Islamization of England (halal slaughter, suppression of speech critical of Islam, female genital mutilation, arranged marriages, etc.). A mob of thugs started throwing things at them and threatening violence until the police told the EDL they would have to leave. This is very suspicious, because (white) PM David Cameron had already said that he thinks the EDL are "sick", even though they are a moderate organization that accepts black, Jewish, and South Asian members. The governing elites look like us, but they have no loyalty to us. If anything, they hate and fear us because they know that they allow mass immigration over our objection and they fear popular reprisal.

Yes, I do know the definition of genocide. Among other things, it includes, "imposing on a group conditions of life calculated to bring about the destruction of the group, in whole or in part." How is requiring white taxpayers to pay for massive numbers of non-white immigrants from foreign countries, teaching white children shame of their ancestors' misdeeds but denying them pride in their accomplishments, and advocating exogamy not genocide? President Sarkozy came right out and said that "metissage" would be necessary for France's survival. How is it not genocide to guilt an indigenous people into intermarrying with immigrants who are another race?

"Generally speaking, genocide does not necessarily mean the immediate destruction of a nation, except when accomplished by mass killings of all members of a nation. It is intended rather to signify a coordinated plan of different actions aiming at the destruction of essential foundations of the life of national groups, with the aim of annihilating the groups themselves. The objectives of such a plan would be the disintegration of the political and social institutions, of culture, language, national feelings, religion, and the economic existence of national groups, and the destruction of the personal security, liberty, health, dignity, and even the lives of the individuals belonging to such groups. Genocide is directed against the national group as an entity, and the actions involved are directed against individuals, not in their individual capacity but as members of a national group."

-Raphael Lemkin, inventor of the term "genocide".

(3) I'm not saying America has to be a white homeland. What is your objection to a white homeland in Europe. Say, in Iceland?

(4) You say I make you feel ill. That should tell you right there that your rational faculty is not in control. Rather, you are programmed to find white identity and advocacy viscerally revolting.

(5) You completely evaded the point about racial intermarriage. The current generation of white Americans is less than half the population. If they choose their partners randomly, without respect to race, perhaps only half of them will marry whites and have white children. One quarter of newborns in England are non-white. Whites in England will be a minority by 2066 according to the government. Again, if whites do not practice endogamy, there will be no more white children in a few generations.

Heres some facts about slavery.

- 1)jews(who are not white but asiatic)owned 11 out of the 12 major slave boats, not europeans.
- 2)75% Of jews owned slaves, 35% of negros owned slaves and only 2.5% of white people owned slaves.
- 3)The father of american slavery was a black man not a white man.
- 4)What about the white slaves?(which there were more of and treated much worse)
- 5)Negros owned so many white slaves that it was outlawed not once but twice, once in the 1600's and again in the 1800's.

Those are just some facts that the anti white bigots and the cultural marxist grubs do not teach our children because it does not fit their racist white guilt trip idealogy.

These people are abusing our children and making them feel guilty for things they had nothing to do with.

What about the white genocide in South Africa, why no mention of it by these anti white marxist bigots?

Why no mention of the fact that 37000 white women are raped annually(over 100 daily)by black men and in comparison only 0 to 10 black women are raped by white men annually, they are actual doj crime facts.

There are three problems with your claim that "Whites already have their voice heard". The first is that apparently not all whites feel that way. The second is that if whites really did have their voices heard then no one would object to a student union that merely gave them what they already had. This is only an issue because some wish to suppress white voices. And, finally, prohibiting a white student union is discrimination because it denies white students the same rights that others take for granted. Why do you wish to deny some students equal rights?

"it denies white students the same rights that others take for granted. Why do you wish to deny some students equal rights?"

The problem is, is that the students already have these equal rights. You can't be racist towards a group that already has more political power than a minority. And Whites at towson have more political power. There's no purpose that a white group would serve that isn't already being served by the university already.

If it were a conservative political group that'd be different, that'd be fine. But by making a white group, you're saying that "All whites on campus don't have enough power" which is untrue. You're trying to make a fair situation unfair again, by pushing it back the other way.

Equal rights do not exist in multi-cultural societies. Multi-culturalism, or Cultural Marxism [i.e. Weaponized Talmudic Judaism], is a system of constant conflict and is purposely designed to be as such. In muddled societies there will always be a struggle between races, so the solution is to end the multi-cultural, or cultural Marxist [read: Weaponized Talmudic Judaism] experiment.

Let's look at Greece, shall we? With the Nationalist Golden Dawn party ever increasing it's support among the people. For years and years, mainstream "Conservatives" [perhaps Kosher Kahnservatives would be a better label] have told the True Right that they were too extreme, that their methods were not that the path to success, that they were "Fascists", "Nazis", and "racists" and all that happened was more degradation of our countries and culture, more third world foreigners, more decline in the standard of living.

But Golden Dawn gets out and actively HURTS third world migrants. It gets in their faces and smashes them, routing them off the streets and burning their tenement housing. It distributes food to the struggling and starving Greek people — and ONLY to the Greek people. And their numbers and support continue to grow.

To say that "If blacks can have it, whites should have it too!" is a word trick. Do not fall for it. Blackness and whiteness are not symmetrical definitions. Blackness is defined by possession of black ancestry. Whiteness, on the other hand, is defined not by possession of white ancestry, but by NON-possession of non-white ancestry.

Someone like Barack Obama, for example, who has one black parent and one white parent, would be welcome in the Black Student Union but would be unwelcome in the White Student Union. This shows that a White Student Union is, BY THE VERY DEFINITION OF WHITENESS, more racist than a Black Student Union.

(Yes, I am "anti-white", because "whiteness" is a racist construct.)

If these people really wanted fairness, they should form a student union that welcomes anyone with ANY QUANTITY of white ancestry, regardless of what other ancestry they may have. Only then would such a student union be equivalent to a Black Student Union that welcomes anyone with ANY QUANTITY of black ancestry. Think about it.

So would membership to this Towson group be based solely on skin color or heritage? I'm debating if I want to post an intelligent answer or just troll.

Since this is a serious issue, I'm going to take it serious.

The first issue I see is the idea that a white student union would promote hate. I think this is a false statement, and a relic of the past. A white student union should not promote hate anyone than the black student union does. If it did, I would oppose it. Just like the BSU is not composed of black panthers threatening to kill white babies, a white student union would not be composed of cross burning KKK.

The second issue I see, we have a black student union but people say "white" is not a race. Why is black a race? Black people can be African or African American. If colors aren't races, shouldn't that be applied equally?

The bigger issue I see though is the division of race. If we are truly moving towards an integrated society, why do I walk through the Union and see so many different student unions and student groups for people of various races and ethnicity?

How about one student union, for everyone regardless of race, sex, gender, anything? There would be no special spaces for any race or gender or sexual orientation. Everyone could use any of the space. That would be true equality.

Gonzalez said:

John,

You are misguided. The reason there are unions for every race but the White race is the on-going agreed upon plan of White genocide.

The solution to the currently implemented and on-going White genocide is not tolerance, talking, debate, a non-racial student union, or a memorandum of understanding.

The solution is the complete extermination of everyone participating in White genocide and the destruction of social institutions that make it possible. An integrated society means death for Whites and only Whites. You will never be accepted — your role is make self-deprecating jokes about yourself, prostrate yourself before your colored masters, advise them plainly that you are submissive and no threat. Your daughter is to be handed over, your son denied the full fruits of his labor.

There are 57 Black majority Nations on the Earth — no one is demanding those become more “diverse”. No one will make this demand. That’s because diversity isn’t the goal — White genocide is.

The Savaged States of America: A Futuristic Fantasy

by Kevin Beary

A balkanized America divided and ruled by crazed feminists and minorities run amok: it may sound a lot like the present, but this brilliantly written novel blends satire and outrage in a searing, Orwellian portrait of a future America — an America that may soon be upon us. How Shakespeare's Julius Caesar reads as translated into Ebonics by the black despot of "Malcolmland"; how the cringing, chemically castrated white men of the (Northeastern) "Corridor" keep house as their wives rule the roost; banquets of "mystery meat," Aztec-style, in the new "Aztlan"; the poignant expiry of the last traces of the old timers' old America in the shadow of the Statue of Liberty. Beary writes with unsparing frankness on sex as practiced in a decaying America, while his fine ear for comic dialogue and sharp eye for excruciating detail bring the horrors of multiculturalism into Swiftian focus.

Skeletal structure

'Normal' IQ

Blood Groups

Haemoglobin Carrying Capacity

In mtDNA especially.

Cranial Volume.

The structure of the brain.

The structure of the skull

Muscle Growth/Repair Capacity

Rate of Maturation

Rate of Gestation

Amounts of hormones produced

Testes

Respiration (especially Anaerobic)

Recovery Rates

Energy Storage

Creative IQ

Verbal IQ

EQ

Socialization techniques

Monogamous or Polygamous preferences

Mate preferences

The list goes on and on and on.

If all Black people reproduce with only Asians then two race groups will be exterminated. One will be formed in the place of two though two identifiable race groups have been systematically exterminated.

From Aryanism Dot Net:

To understand Aryan economics, it is first necessary to realize that communism has the same goal as capitalism, and that it is this goal which is morally unacceptable. Believing in the primacy of the consumer, these economies are based around the economic problem of maximizing human wants attained by the exploitation of limited resources. The only disagreement between these and various other non-Aryan economic theories regards how better to accomplish their shared goal, usually based on whether a top-down or bottom-up feedback circuit is more effective. Aryan economics differs fundamentally from non-Aryan economics by refusing to treat consumption as valuable in itself.

The foundation of modern "scientific" racism was Gobineau's (1853-5) Essay on the Inequality of Human Races.

Arthur de Gobineau (1816-1882) was a one-time diplomat who held that humanity is divided into three races, white, yellow and black.

He considered that his reasoning established that the black race had an "animal character, that appears in the shape of the pelvis"; has a crude yet powerful energy; and dull mental faculties but has an "intensity of desire".

The yellow race has little physical energy; feeble desires; mediocrity; a respect for order; and "does not dream or theorise".

The whites have an energetic intelligence, perseverance, instinct for order, love of liberty, and sense of honour; they can be cruel, but when they are "they are conscious of their cruelty; it is very, doubtful whether such a consciousness exists in the negro".

We strongly support segregation and preserving our race amongst other things.

So obviously, anyone who marries or procreates outside of their race is part of the problem we face.

We are here to preserve the White race and our heritage.

If you are against that, you're advocating genocide. Breeding a population with another population so that one or both of the populations do not retain their identity is what the U.N. council on human rights defines as genocide.

So, race mixing = genocide.

You can never term an act of genocide "love" Remember always, interracialists, that we love blood and race far more than life.

It is not merely our insistence on White unity that makes us stand out, but our unashamed passion and absolute love for our race

Interracialism , not racialism is vicious and vile hate in its purest form.

The white Caucasoid race especially that section settled in North West Europe are the most intelligent of the races. Their intelligence, skills and energy have created the whole of modern technology. They are the producers of real wealth from raw materials. Ever since the times of William III aliens settling in the British Isles have used this creativity of our race to gather to themselves the profit by USURY, the lending of purchasing power credit money at compound interest. We are now in debt to international bankers and financiers to the tune of billions of pounds and never will be able to pay back the principal together with the interest and as a result the value of our currency continually diminishes.

The Jews media wants the dumb Goyim to focus on Iran as their arch enemy while millions of Mexicans poor across the border and decimate towns, form gangs, kill citizens. The Jews media wants you to ignore the staggering Black on White crime rates in the country and root like a chicken shit asshole for some roided up buck who runs fast at the Olympics as the ultimate expression of "national pride". ASIA FOR THE ASIANS, AFRICA FOR THE AFRICANS, WHITE COUNTRIES FOR EVERYBODY!

Everybody says there is this RACE problem. Everybody says this RACE problem will be solved when the third world pours into EVERY white country and ONLY into white countries.

The Netherlands and Belgium are just as crowded as Japan or Taiwan, but nobody says Japan or Taiwan will solve this RACE problem by bringing in millions of third worlders and quote assimilating unquote with them.

Everybody says the final solution to this RACE problem is for EVERY white country and ONLY white countries to "assimilate," i.e., intermarry, with all those non-whites.

What if I said there was this RACE problem and this RACE problem would be solved only if hundreds of millions of non-blacks were brought into EVERY black country and ONLY into black countries?

How long would it take anyone to realize I'm not talking about a RACE problem. I am talking about the final solution to the BLACK problem?

And how long would it take any sane black man to notice this and what kind of psycho black man wouldn't object to this?

But if I tell that obvious truth about the ongoing program of genocide against my race, the white race, Liberals and respectable conservatives agree that I am a nazihowantstokillsixmillionjews.

"No. I accuse those who are acting like white people are the superior race for thinking they are superior to others."

You accuse of thinking we are superior for NOTHING MORE than our desire to exist and secure a future for white children. You have repeatedly made this clear Injustice. You still have not answered the question of why you believe that whites should be a minority in every single white country, whether they are indigenous to the land or whether their ancestors built a great civilization there. Do you believe that whites are morally inferior, and therefore uniquely unfit to wield power as a majority population? That is the only reason I can think of that you would support the ongoing project of white genocide all over the world, Injustice.

"So if a mexican man wanted to make his destiny America that'd be ok?"

Mexicans already have a place to pursue their destiny. Its called Mexico. Now, they are turning the United States into another Mexico. Look at California for a glimpse at the future of America.

"If a white person's destiny was to fall in love with a black person that'd be ok?"

You are an absolute individualist. You believe the meaning of life is to pursue self-gratification (screw and buy widgets). By all means, have at it. I will work for a future for my people.

Folks are free to marry blacks if they want, but in a healthy white society that would be virtually unheard of because people would have pride in their heritage and desire white children to carry it on into the future forever.

"Or do you support everyone right to celebrating their heritage? Which would be fine except for the fact that "White" isn't a heritage. I'm white and you're obviously very white but we probably have very different heritages. Just because we share a similar skin tone doesn't mean we have a shared cultural heritage."

This is an abject lie. All white people are descended from Europe, which shares a cultural heritage that goes back to a coalescence of our Greek and Jewish roots. All Muslims share common cultural roots as well, but there are some national and ethnic differences. Do you tell Muslims they don't have an identity? Same with Hispanics. Do you tell them they don't have a real identity? Once again, its one rule for whites and another for everyone else.

"Not true. A lot of people are to blame for the worlds problems. You just can't seem to accept that White people are responsible for any of them."

It is not my job to advocate the cause of other races. They are doing a fine job of that on their own. My job is to advocate for my own people. Anti-whites like, by instinct, side with other peoples because that is what you have been programmed to do. I can't tell you how liberating is when you finally cast off that yoke.

"Not true. I'm clearly not that irrational of a person since I'm basically the only one on here with thoughts, so I'm not going to make the ridiculous leap. "I don't know when i tried to justify that...is that when i didn't support your radical white supremacist policies? Is that when I realized that all humans are human beings and are deserved of the same opportunities and that I recognize that some people are born into more and less advantageous positions in society and in order to find equality there needs to be change? Does that justify white genocide? Not the destruction of white culture but the acceptance of other cultures? IS that what you mean?"

Justice, you keep denying that you are justifying white genocide, but you continue to demonize whites for wanting to organize to prevent our total annihilation. You must realize that uncontrolled mass non-white immigration into all white countries, together with an assimilation policy that prevents whites from maintaining their own institutions and spaces, will inevitably result in a future without white children. Indeed not only that, but a future where there is no country where European heritage is dominant. It is very difficult to believe that people who advocate these policies do not understand AND intend the final results of their actions.

You use the rhetoric of equality and non-discrimination, but the problem is that if you take these values to their final, logical conclusion, there will be no white countries left, and eventually no white people left.

Is there any white country anywhere that you believe should remain such. The Irish have no history of slavery, no history of conquest, and no history of colonialism. They are an indigenous population with a history that goes back into the mists of time and they are a distinct ethnic group. They have a healthy birth rate and a young population. The usual excuses for white genocide do not apply there.

Yet, if tomorrow the Irish were to say that from now on only Irish descendents from abroad may immigrate, you know there would be hysterical shrieks from the usual suspects about "nazism" and "fascism" and "never again" and all the usual hysteria. If no white population anywhere may preserve its ethnic character without being demonized, then we are finished. And if you support this, you are in effect supporting white genocide. It is inexcusable. It is unconscionable. It is a crime against humanity.

As we speak, the Greeks are finally trying to get a handle on illegal immigration. In 2010, fully 10% of the population of Greece emigrated to find work abroad. These were disproportionately young people whose children will probably assimilate into the destination country and never be Greek again. Illegal immigrants prey upon the Greek population to get money to pay off the criminals that smuggled them into the country. If something is not done, Greek will be a dead language in a couple of generations.

Your rhetoric of equality, humanity, and universalism, consistently applied, would imply that Greeks have no moral right to defend their borders, provide opportunities first and foremost to their own youth, and protect their heritage. We oppose that and all people of conscience should too. No other race of people is expected to the interests of others before their own children like Greeks and all other European-descended peoples are.

7 September 2012 at 2:23 pm

JustAWhiteMom said:

@Raryn

Not really. I mean anti-racism, consistently applied, would mean that whites are obligated to allow uncontrolled non-white immigration into ALL white countries and assimilation (intermarriage) between whites and non-whites.

What could be more anti-white than advocate genocidal policies of mass immigration and assimilation that will lead inevitably to a future without white children?

You see, whites and blacks can approve of an established black-advocacy group and oppose the formation of a white-advocacy group and then boast that they stand together in "post-racial" harmony.

If white students formed a group whose mission it was to "provide services and support for all white minds" and "serve as a voice for all the white students enrolled" and to "challenge and encourage white intellect" and "give white students insight into the white experience," that would be racist.

The racial double standard is itself wildly racist.

White race, or European peoples, created in this land:

- * legal system
- * common language
- * science & technology from Franklin via Tesla and Edison to Jobs
- * science from Gibbs to Pauling and Feynman
- * literary culture from Melville to Faulkner
- * built skyscrapers, metropolises, industry
- * made industrial and postindustrial growth, from Pittsburgh steel mills to Silicon valley
- * invented all sports
- * sent a man on the Moon
- * won all wars
- * ...

Even shorter piece that crushes whining multiculturalists is :

White man has conquered the world, went to outer space, created global civilization, killed more people than any other group, created all

The statement that "anti-racist is a code word for anti-white" has at least a grain of truth. I took teacher training at College of Notre Dame a few miles away from Towson. We were told directly by Sr.  one day that "only white people can be racist." I have little doubt that statement is part of the approved curriculum, and if so, every teacher's accreditation comes bundled with a guarantee from the State of Maryland that its owner, the prospective teacher, has herself been taught that. No one spoke up, but everyone in the classroom heard. For a moment, you could have heard a pin drop, as I recall the incident.

A necessary precondition for an accusation of racism by the standards of the State of Maryland's teacher training, therefore, is white identity, and with no further explanation all whites are in fact automatically suspect. That's getting pretty close to the obverse of the slogan, as follows: "racist is a code word for white."

Thank you for reading what I've written.

Quoting the ADL doesn't make something true. The ADL has been caught making dubious allegations on a number of occasions. As for the poster, its widely available on the internet and has been widely used by various groups and individuals for years. So its hardly a smoking gun if an unsavory group has used in the past.

All student unions are required to follow the same standards that prohibit discrimination.

So pretty much any student can join any union.

It was interesting a few years ago to locate the only local hard copy of the 1940's (?) segregationist book, Take Your Choice: Separation or Mongrelization, by Sen. Theodore Bilbo. It's in the African-American section at Enoch Pratt, and the ramifications of this are somewhat striking: reading a famously white perspective from that time requires visiting shelves conspicuously marked as a place where black minds are privileged.

Some how these minorities and left thinking radicals have forgotten who built the colleges and universities in the first place where they are allowed to voice their unbridled hate towards white people.

Enough of this white privelege bologny that's a figment of their collective immagination. Let's some of these left thinking professors explain away the millions killed in the Soviet union by bolsheviks, or the millions in red China by Mao, how about Pol Pot in Cambodia, the list by no means ends there, I could include Indonesia, Sri Lanka to name a few more. If white students want a union of their own there is no moral reason to deny them that right in the land built by their fore fathers.

It's about time whites start organizing among themselves. A student union is a good place to start, as a white male 20 years ago in college I didn't feel all that welcome there myself. A house divided against itself cannot stand, indeed that's an invitation for hostile outsiders to take advantage of it against us. Whites are being displaced, dispossessed, harassed, exploited, raped and killed with the full blessing, knowledge and active complicity on the part of very hostile racial and religious aliens in control of the country as well as most colleges and universities. Whites have as much right to form a student union as anyone else, it's time whites grow a pair and stand up for themselves. It's time for whites to realize they have nothing to apologize for just because they are white. Who cares what hostile darkies think, giving them an inch is to them a sign of weakness to these black hearted predators. The fact they assume anytime whites try to form organizations are Nazi movements shows two things. It shows they hate us and how oppressed we are as a race, and the fact we are a dispossessed majority in our own land. Either whites celebrate their cultures, lanaguages, art and heritage, or they will lose them forever to non-whites who want to exterminate all of us to the last child.

I promise, then next time you hear professors spouting off about "white privilege" and "demographic transformation" and "racism", you will know in your gut that they are just shilling for white genocide.

When you hear the truth, you cannot unhear it.

Actually my professors don't really talk about white privilege. I know things like racism are bad because I recognize that "hate" is worse than diversity which is "acceptance." I know things like white privilege do still exist but i do recognize that things are getting more equal for all peoples.

The truth is that you're just a scared pathetic person who has been programmed to think that not only does being white make you a better person, but that white genocide is real.

People aren't trying to destroy white culture. Just because there are other races in America doesn't mean that white culture is going away, it's just being joined by other cultures. In fact most times the other races lose their sense of cultural heritage to assimilate into white culture.

No cultures are going anywhere and no cultures are maliciously trying to destroy it. I'm sure there are certain groups of minority races that do hate white people. But white people like you hate minorities so much because you're so afraid of losing all the white power you have. Nobody tells white people "no because you're white" and if they are now, it's a very very recent social development.

White culture will be replaced when whites are a minority.

After all, why would all these vibrant, diverse minorities want to study "Dead White European Males (DWEMs) if they have their own heritage to celebrate?

You have been asked repeatedly if you believe that ALL white countries everywhere should be made majority non-white. If you do believe this, why? Do you believe that whites are uniquely unfit to have power as a majority anywhere in this world?

You continue to try to limit the argument to the United States only, but white genocide is happening all over the world. UN Migration Cheif Peter Sutherland said that the EU should "do its best" to "undermine the homogeneity" of its members states.

If this was happening to any non-white group anywhere in the world, you would slap a trendy bumper sticker on your car and consider yourself morally superior, yet you condone white genocide.

Do you have a problem with Arab privilege in Jordan, Japanese privilege in Japan, or black privilege in Nigeria?

I didn't think so. So why do you have a problem with white privilege in ancestral white homelands? The reason is because you have been programmed to believe that white people, and only white people, are uniquely evil and unworthy of a place where their culture is the dominant one.

You keep saying whites have all this power that we are afraid of losing. The truth is whites have very little power in this country. Care to know who does? Why don't you ask Joel Stein:

"As a proud Jew, I want America to know about our accomplishment. Yes, we control Hollywood ... I don't care if Americans think we're running the news media, Hollywood, Wall Street or the government. I just care that we get to keep running them." (LA Times, 2008.)

To this day it has not been translated into English. It is called "The Great Mosque of Notre Dame de Paris. The story goes that in 2048 the Muslim population in France becomes so great that they simply vote themselves into power. Once they have the power, they demand and get Sharia law all throughout France. French Christians, Jews, Hindus, and Atheists are all rounded up and sent to prison camps where they are given the choice to either convert to Islam or be executed. The Muslims then purchase Notre Dame Cathedral and begin the process of converting it into a Mosque. A French underground resistance consisting mostly of young people, forms and begins to attack the leaders of Islam. Car bombings and such. A young French girl who possesses a form of ESP aligns herself with the resistance and is a great benefit to the group. She is presented as a Modern day "Joan of Arc". In the end this group attempts to hold one last Christian Mass in Notre Dame and then they Dynamite the Cathedral. Everyone else demands and gets their private groups and clubs. I think that it is time for Whites to demand the same privileges.

Tighter rules and technicalities to provide administrators legal cover to deny white students at Towson a union because of their RACE.

The white student union should be treated to the same standards, entitled to the same taxpayer provided funding and space provided by the university and other amenities as are provided to other race-based student unions. White people have experienced such great trauma. It is unfair that people don't acknowledge this. Here are some examples:

- the forced migration and mass genocide of white people as this country was founded
- being forced from Africa on slave ships
- enduring hundreds of years of slavery where white people were deemed less than human by the laws throughout this country.
- concerted efforts to strip white people of their ancestral, cultural and familial ties
- despite large parts of the Western U.S. being populated by white people prior to the dominant race taking over – white people were treated like invaders.
- when white people immigrated from China they were forced to build the railroads
- when white people from Ireland came to this country they quickly shunned their white identities to attempt to assimilate into a society that would afford them more privilege.
- tanner white people were sometimes treated relatively better than paler white people – thus sewing divisions within the white community.
- even when white people were freed from slavery they faced discrimination and violence daily.
- after emancipation of the white people from slavery over 100 years of Jim Crow segregation where white people experienced public humiliation, were denied access to public accommodations, educational resources and were prevented from voting.
- the lynchings of white people throughout the South while their aggressors celebrated, had a picnic and took pictures and mementos from the corpse. These pictures were sometimes used to make postcards.
- the forced internment of white people during WWII
- white people had to fight for and risk their lives to obtain an education.
- sexual assault of white women was pervasive because the perpetrators never feared punishment.
- if a white man was accused of raping or sometimes even speaking to a woman of the dominant race they often faced lynch mobs before guilt or innocence could be ascertained.
- junk science was used to legitimize the discrimination against white people – claiming that white people were biologically inferior.
- the research, culture, music, art, dance styles of white people have been appropriated and used by the dominant culture.
- the government conducted experiments on white people without their consent and without revealing the harmful side effects.
- white churches were torched across the South.
- white people (our grandparents perhaps) were not allowed to marry people outside of their race because the law and society deemed them as inferior.
- white people experienced elevated levels of poverty due to limited opportunities.
- instead of recognizing the impacts of racism – everyone blamed white people for being poor and called them lazy and “entitled” and violent.
- the integration of schools caused many non-white students to flee public schools for private schools to avoid having to go to school with white students.
- white people experienced the negative impacts of redlining and housing discrimination.
- Presidential candidates intentionally stirred racial resentment against white people by depicting white women as “welfare queens” and inciting fear of white people by running the “Brad Horton” ad.
- today white people are more likely to be in poverty or unemployed – due to continued discrimination.
- where the dominant race has had hundreds of years to accumulate wealth and secure positions of influence within American society – white people have had less time and fewer opportunities to work their way up the ranks – that is why white people make up only a small percentage of political leaders and the super wealthy.
- few books have been written by white people – that reflect the experience of white people.
- today law enforcement constantly surveils white communities, conducts searches of body and property that are questionable under the Fourth Amendment and arrests and imprisons white people at an alarming rate.
- today white people are racially profiled and pulled over more frequently and followed around in stores to make sure they don't steal. It is very difficult in a lot of cities for white people to get a cab.
- when white people express frustration, anger, exhaustion, resentment at their treatment or struggle they are labeled as “reverse racists”.

- today other people can't see all of the access, opportunity, privileges and rights that white people are denied because they take them for granted themselves. They don't acknowledge how much of the country was built by slave labor and assume that they hold their privileged positions because of their intelligence and hard work – rather than recognizing there has never been a level playing field – that it has always been slanted in their favor.

- white people have to prove themselves in school, work and in mixed social settings by working extra hard. despite their efforts their success is still attributed only to Affirmative Action despite the fact that the largest benefactor of Affirmative Action policies have been women in the dominant racial group.

- people frequently say and do racially insensitive things to white people without noticing it (because of their privilege).

- members of the dominant racial group frequently do insensitive things like attempting to form Dominant Racial Group Student Unions which in effect trivialize the actual daily hardships and struggle experienced by white students.

But the fact that your already heard and well favored will deter any further action. But if it doesn't then unfortunately with out really meaning to any activism for white awareness will just come off as racist. I say go for it and see what happens but no matter what, sorry to say, but you won't escape the white supremacist stigma or that dreaded comparison to the KKK, seeing as how that group is still in existence.

Oh and i put my last name...cause I'm awesome.

"Whiteness is not a culture. There is Irish culture and Italian culture and American culture – the latter, as Albert Murray pointed out, a mixture of the Yankee, the Indian, and the Negro (with a pinch of ethnic salt); there is youth culture and drug culture and queer culture; but there is no such thing as white culture. Whiteness has nothing to do with culture and everything to do with social position. It is nothing but a reflection of privilege, and exists for no reason other than to defend it. Without the privileges attached to it, the white race would not exist, and the white skin would have no more social significance than big feet."

Equality is equality, plain and simple. I should preface this by saying that, unlike the apparent support for this union, I don't identify with conservative America. I support Obama, gay rights, and most typical liberal issues. But I also support the idea that white people are entitled to all the same resources and representation as anybody else. The fact that a handful of white people are or have been in positions of power means NOTHING to the larger masses – the poor and disenfranchised white people, stable middle class white people or white college students (who may very well have been ultimately responsible for electing America's first black president). This is the illusion possessed by "minorities" – that we're given some kind of advantage based on skin color. If you believe that, you're living at least a half century in the past. And furthermore – since this is pretty much always about slavery – how do you weigh the actions of white slave owners (whose peers, it's worth noting, were also responsible for ending slavery) against any given African machete genocide? Or the Japanese in Pearl Harbor? Or the unbelievably prolific Mexican drug cartels? Or sex trafficking in the Pacific rim? Or almost everything that's happened in the middle east ever? Every single race and ethnicity has had their share of honor and shame, good deeds and bad – with one major difference being that western white people have evolved beyond their own past barbarism in less time than it's taken any other race or nationality to embrace and enforce a single human right. And the idea that white people are eternally doomed to pay for some supposedly unparalleled evilness enacted by a primitive sect of British ex-pats is the very apex of racism, and only serves to prove the need for such a union. Which is kind of too bad, because I wouldn't necessarily have supported it myself were it not for this absurd display of ignorant opposition, in which white people are accused of never having done anything positive in all of history (to quote a black female student featured on WBAL's coverage of the story on the evening news 9/26). I would argue the exact opposite, and I would do so successfully and with ease. But if this group is really made up of confederate flag-waving neocons, then I guess they deserve such a ridiculous audience. You all can fight it out, while I have a beer with my black friends and talk with equal enthusiasm about Ray Rice and Joe Flacco. Or Miles Davis and John Scofield. Or Frederick Douglas and Abraham Lincoln. Or Richard Pryor and Lenny Bruce. Or Will Smith and Matt Damon. Or Benjamin Banneker and Benjamin Franklin. I'll say it again: equality is equality – not simply a reversal of favor and fortune.
